FOTO REVIEW # 15

Stefan Cimer
Founder and Editor in Chief

Dear Friends and Reader!

We are proudly presenting our 15th issue of our featured photo review.

This time our photographic journey is taking us to Lukasz Stanczyk, a very talented photographer based in Warsaw.

His style of street photography is somewhat a mixture between muted colors and vintag black and white.

We found the combination between dreamy, melancholic and solitude elments very captivating in his figurative language.

Please join us on this amazing journey.

Enjoy Reading!

Photography is a part of me. My photos show how I look at the reality surrounding me. I am interested shots that show the daily life, feelings and people who surround us and which we do not see busy with their own affairs.
